Important Information

- Schedule at <https://ovscon.site/>
- All talks are prerecorded, so we're here for discussion and Q&A.
- If BlueJeans performs badly, try closing unneeded browser tabs.
- While the talks are playing, we can discuss them using the Chat feature.
- To submit a question for the presenters, please use the Q&A feature.
 - You can submit them before the end of the talk, or after.
 - Presenters might answer in Q&A directly or on voice and video. We'll do our best to copy or point from one to the other.
 - The schedule highlights the sessions where we expect the presenters to be available in light blue.
- We will post the recordings including Q&A as soon as we can after the conference.

Special thanks to Red Hat

Special thanks to Red Hat for hosting the conference this year!

Extra accolades to individuals at Red Hat who helped out, including:

Community Need

We need more code reviews!

For speakers

We will make sure to promote you to the BlueJeans “presenter” mode before your talk. This will allow you to respond to Q&A in text and appear on voice and video. If we forget or can't find you, please send us a message.
