Table 1: Summary of the original codebook and the described frame cues by Boydston et al. [13] and the case specific additions to the codebook including keywords and phrases

Frame dimension	Relevance for case study	Relevant keywords and phrases
Economic	The costs, benefits, or any financial implications of the issue (to an individual, family, organization, community or to the economy as a whole). Impact on Norwegian companies worldwide. E.g. Telenor, one of the major mobile companies in Pakistan, faced reputational damage and customer loss.	Telenor, Pakistan, #boycottNorge
Capacity & Resources	The lack of—or availability of—time, physical, geographical, space, human, and financial resources, or the capacity of existing systems and resources to implement or carry out policy goals. Discussions about limited HR resources of the police to prevent the escalation during the Quran Burning incident. Discussions about the Quran Burning incident focusing on inability of the government due to	lack of police, lack of money, lack of investment missing financial or human resources to monitor extremist movements.

Morality & Ethics

Any perspective that is compelled by religious doctrine or interpretation, duty, honor, righteousness or any other sense of ethics or social or personal responsibility (religious or secular).

As the Quran is a religious book and Muslims are a religious community, there are several articles, which contain morality frame cues. Furthermore, the incident triggered discussions about freedom of speech vs. hate speech, which can both be a morality or legality discussion. As well nationalist narratives that the Western culture needs to be protected etc. might fall under this frame.

Religion, Quran, Allah, Freedom of Speech

Fairness & Equality

The fairness, equality or inequality with which laws, punishment, rewards, and resources are applied or distributed among individuals or groups. Also the balance between the rights or interests of one individual or group compared to

Discrimination in relation to religion, gender, sexual orientation etc.

another individual or group
As the Muslim community is a minority group in the Norwegian society the fairness and equality frame might apply.

Legality, Constitutionality & Jurisdiction

The legal, constitutional, or jurisdictional aspects of an issue, where legal aspects include existing laws and court cases; constitutional aspects include all discussion of constitutional interpretation and/or potential revisions; and jurisdiction includes any discussion of which government body should be in charge of a policy decision and/or the appropriate scope of a body's policy reach
Discussions on the legality of the burning of the Quran. Is it forbidden by the constitution? As well the legality to generally burn something on a market square was discussed heavily.
Furthermore, the Penal Code paragraph 185 (Hate Speech paragraph), was highly discussed in relation to the Quran Burning incident.

Hate Speech paragraph, (Blasphemy) paragraph, Penal Code

Crime & Punishment (Retribution)	The violation of policies in practice and the consequences—retribution—of these violations. As a consequence of the event, seven people were indicted. Three for nuisance, two for violence against the police, and two investigation cases. Even though the incident was potentially legal, it caused law-breaking actions.	punishment, fine, conviction, crime
Security & Defense	Any threat to a person, group, or nation, or any defense that needs to be taken to avoid that threat. There have been calls for revenge. The Norwegian flag was burned in Karachi, Pakistan, as a protest. Threats towards Norway have been announced, and people were worried about potential terrorist responses to the incident.	revenge, terrorism, terrorist threat
Health & Safety	The potential health and safety issues. During the protests some people got attacked. If they were physically attacked they felt that their safety and health was at risk.	beaten, hit
Quality of Life	The benefits and costs of any policy on quality of life.	fear of revenge and violence

	The incident has caused fear for revenge. Living in fear and being afraid of new violent situations to occur can have an impact on quality of life.
Cultural Identity	The social norms, trends, values and customs constituting any culture(s), as they relate to a specific policy issue. Discussions about the struggles of muslim immigrants to find their place in Norway and constant reminders that Norway is not their country of origin and home. Racist and nationalist narratives that people from different countries and cultural backgrounds should not mingle to protect the Western culture and the Western value system.	diaspora, not feeling at home, feeling unaccepted
Public Sentiment	The public's opinion. Includes references to general social attitudes, protests, polling and demographic information, as well as implied or actual consequences of diverging from or “getting ahead of” public opinion or polls. The public sentiment plays a role regarding the Quran	Public opinion polls revealed, The majority of the Norwegians burning incident e.g. in the form of discussions about the public impression that Norway might not be safe anymore. But as well all stories about certain interest groups (nationalist groups and left-wing groups, minority groups or organizations) can deliver information about the public sentiment in Norway during that time.

Political Factors & Implications

Any political considerations surrounding an issue. There have been a lot of comments after the event which underlined a political motivation. The right-wing side argued for the idea of Muslims not respecting the values of a western society. The left argued that these kinds of provocations and the right-wings reaction to the situation was done to promote the idea of Muslims being a problem and a threat to society. Both people and politicians used the burning of the Quran to voice political views.

The political party Fremskrittspartiet (FRP) and any other party in Norway and elsewhere, names of politicians

Policy Description, Prescription & Evaluation	Existing policies, policies proposed for addressing an identified problem, as well as analysis of whether hypothetical policies will work, or existing policies are effective. There are stories, which discuss if the current political strategies on how to integrate immigrants into the Norwegian society are working.	immigration law, mandatory language and integration courses
External Regulation & Reputation	In general, Norway's external relations with another nation; the external relations of one Norwegian state with another. The event has received international attention. It led to a press release by e.g. the Turkish government or Pakistani politicians.	Ambassador / Ambassadors names, international relations, reputation of Norway
Other	Any frame cue that does not fit in the first 14 dimensions.	Example: "AMAZING GOOD HUMOR, GOOD !!!!!!! What was the theme here? Quran Burning?"
None	Short messages that did not contain any form of framing, but solely a objective description of the situation	Messages like: The Quran was burned on the market place of Kristiansand by members of SIAN.
