

HIGH SCHOOL SCHOLARS INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, an independent bureau of the U.S. Department of Treasury, charters, regulates, and supervises all national banks and federal savings associations. The OCC's mission is to ensure all national banks and federal savings associations operate in a safe and sound manner, provide fair access to financial services, treat customers fairly, and comply with applicable laws and regulations. The OCC supports a vibrant and diverse banking system that benefits consumers, communities, businesses, and the U.S. economy.

If you are looking for a challenging internship experience and a chance to work with a diverse group of professionals, then consider a summer internship with the OCC.

The OCC High School Scholars Internship Program (HSSIP) is a six-week paid summer internship for students entering their senior year of high school and recent high school graduates.

As an OCC HSSIP intern, you'll participate in small training teams, develop public speaking, interpersonal, and communication skills in a professional environment, and be introduced to careers in banking regulation and the federal government.
