

Marques et étiquettes de sûreté électrique reconnues au Canada

Les marques de certification et les étiquettes d'inspection sont des signes de confiance qui indiquent la conformité d'un produit. Il est important de savoir si elles sont reconnues au Canada.

Les produits électriques doivent se conformer aux codes nationaux et aux normes nationales du Canada. Ils doivent aussi être certifiés ou inspectés par un organisme muni de l'accréditation du CCN. Les tableaux ci-dessous présentent les marques et les étiquettes reconnues au Canada.
