

SPOTLIGHT On Crime

UP TO $50,000 REWARD

Up to $50,000 is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the death of Rachel Anthony.

Rachel Anthony

Rachel Anthony, 50, disappeared around 10 p.m. Feb 27, 2001, at the end of her shift at Ultimate Liquors in Pine River. The weather was very cold that day, and Anthony had started her car to warm it up before her drive home. A police officer discovered the car still idling about 1 a.m. Upon checking the liquor store, he found the back door unlocked with Anthony's purse and coat still inside, but no signs of Anthony. Her body was found six weeks later in a ravine near Breezy Point, about 15 miles away.

Please help bring closure to the family and friends of Rachel Anthony and bring her killer(s) to justice.

Anyone with information about this case is encouraged to contact:

Cass County Sheriff's Department at (218) 547-1424 or 1-800-450-2677
Minnesota Bureau of Criminal Apprehension Cold Case Unit at 651-793-7000 or 1-877-996-6222

bca.tips@state.mn.us

www.spotlightoncrime.org