

European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights

Personal information

Surname(s)

ROMAIN

First name(s)

Nicole

Current professional position

Head of Unit Communications and Events

Starting Date in the position

15 November 2018

Additional Information

Nicole joined the EU Agency for Fundamental Rights (FRA) as Scientific Editor on 1 March 2010, and has built up and led the agency's Editing and Production Sector from 2011 until taking up her position as Head of Unit.

Prior to taking up her appointment at FRA, she worked as an author and editing consultant for Bertelsmann Publishing in Germany and Spain, and Eurofound, the EU Agency for the Improvement of Living and Working Conditions, in Dublin, Ireland.

She has authored several academic journal articles and contributed to encyclopaedia volumes on health-relevant topics. From 1994 until 2000, she lectured at the German Sport University Cologne. She studied Sports Sciences at Hamburg and Montpellier Universities, and psychology and social sciences at Montpellier University. She holds a Masters in Sports Sciences and a postgraduate degree in Social Sciences from Montpellier University, France.