

Ms. Carly Hall serves as Director, Defense Executive Resources Management Office, DCPAS. In this capacity, she is responsible for policies and programs affecting the civilian Senior Executive workforce within the Military Departments, the Office of the Secretary of Defense, and Defense Agencies. Program and policies include talent management, development, performance management, workforce planning, staffing, compensation, and utilization.

Prior to this, Ms. Hall served as the Chief, Executive Resources for the Department of Defense Office of Inspector General where she managed the full scope of operational functions for the Senior Executive and Senior Professional workforce.

Ms. Hall began her Federal career at the Department of the Air Force where she held a variety of positions in civilian personnel including Executive Development Program Manager within the Air Force Senior Executive Management Office providing executives with targeted and specialized development opportunities focused on meeting current and future enterprise needs. Under the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force, Ms. Hall was responsible for personnel processing of the Headquarters Air Force Political Appointees with Senate Confirmation, non-Career SES, and Schedule C employees.

Ms. Hall has a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology from the University of Mary Washington in Fredericksburg, Virginia.