

Corrected Table 24.1. Potential factors influencing elected officials' perception of CAs

View:		Negative	Positive
			Complementary		Disruptive
Decision-making power:		None	Consultative	Co-decisive	Solely decisive
Factors:
Interests	Power	Losing power	Gaining popularity/votes Better decisions/acceptance		-
	Outcome	Disagreeing	Agreeing
Ideas	Representative legitimacy	Electoral representation Electoral accountability	Both legitimacies		Descriptive representation Justification and rotation
	Capacity	Through selection, professionalisation and adversarial exchange	Both forms of capacity		Through epistemic diversity, independence and deliberation
	Complementarity	Non-complementary	Complementary		Non-complementary
	Ideology	Conservative	Progressive
Institutions	Socialisation	Long political career		Short political career
	Experience with elected institutions	Positive	Problematic		Negative
	Experience with citizen deliberation	Negative	Positive		