ORDER OF DISMISSAL

Section 17.152(b) of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations provides that failure by the Petitioner to submit evidence within 65 calendar days from the date of the Department's Notice of Intent to Collect by Treasury Offset, which in this case is on or about July 13, 2011, will result in a dismissal of Petitioner's request for review by HUD's Office of Appeals. On July 6, 2011, this Court received a Hearing Request from Petitioner in which Petitioner stated that she did not owe the alleged debt. (Petitioner's Hearing Request, p. 1, filed July 6, 2011.) On July 14, 2011, this Court issued a Notice of Docketing, Order, and Stay of Referral ("Notice of Docketing") ordering Petitioner to produce evidence in support of her claim. On August 14, 2011, this Court issued an Amended Notice of Docketing, Order, and Stay of Referral, solely to reflect Petitioner's change of address, but the original Notice of Docketing issued on July 14, 2011 otherwise remained in full force and effect.

To date, Petitioner has failed to comply with the 65-day deadline as ordered in the Notice of Docketing. This Court has since twice ordered Petitioner to file the necessary evidence in support of her claim but Petitioner has failed to comply with both Orders. (Order, dated September 15, 2011; Order to Show Cause, dated October 20, 2011.)

Due to Petitioner's failure to file the necessary documentary evidence within 65 days of the Notice of Intent, as required under 24 C.F.R. § 17.152(b), I find, consistent with regulations, that this Court is compelled to dismiss, sua sponte, Petitioner's appeal in this case. It is hereby ORDERED that this matter be DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE.
