

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
DEPARTMENT OF HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT
OFFICE OF HEARINGS AND APPEALS

In the Matter of:

Daryl Mukrdechian,

Petitioner.

Docket No. 23-VH-0035-AO-002

Claim No. 7-210189880A

November 15, 2023

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

In 24 C.F.R. §§17.69 (b) and 26.4 (c) it provides, in general, that failure by the Petitioner to submit evidence within 60 calendar days from the date of the Department's Notice of Intent will result in a dismissal of Petitioner's request for review by the HUD Office of Hearings and Appeals.

On December 29, 2022, Petitioner filed a Request for Hearing to review HUD's determination that Petitioner owed the subject debt. There is no record of evidence in support of Petitioner's claim that the subject debt does not exist or that Petitioner was released from the contractual obligation to pay the subject debt. To date, Petitioner has failed to comply with any of the Court's Orders on January 4, 2023, June 6, 2023, and August 21, 2023 to produce sufficient evidence that refutes the Secretary's position.

The Order to Show Cause issued by the Court to Petitioner on August 21, 2023 specifically states "Failure to comply with this Order may result in sanctions being imposed by the Court pursuant to 24 C.F.R. § 26.4(c)-(d), including judgment entered on behalf of the opposing party, dismissal of this action, or a decision based on the documents currently available in the record of this proceeding. (Emphasis added). Petitioner again failed to comply as ordered. The lapse of time since January 2022 has provided Petitioner with several opportunities to comply with the Court's Orders but no response. As a result, the Court is unable to determine the credibility of Petitioner's argument in the absence of such evidence.

Consistent with the provisions of 24 C.F.R. §§ 17.69 (b) and 26.4 (c) and (d), Petitioner's appeal is hereby DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE sua sponte due to Petitioner's non-compliance with the Court's Orders to produce the necessary evidence for the Court's review.

The stay of proceeding issued on January 4, 2023 is hereby VACATED.

SO ORDERED.
