Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.

Aims

Energies (ISSN 1996-1073) is an open access journal and publishes papers on scientific research, technology development, engineering policy and management studies related to the general field of energy, from technologies of energy supply, conversion, dispatch and final use to the physical and chemical processes behind such technologies. Acceptable submissions are reviews, regular research papers, and communications. Our aim is to encourage scientists to publish their experimental, numerical and theoretical results in as much detail as possible. There is no restriction on the maximum length of the papers. Full experimental details must be provided in order for the results to be reproduced. For numerical simulations, an accurate description of methods and mesh sensitivity are mandatory.

Scope

- Electrical engineering
- Energy and environment, sustainable transition
- Energy sources
- Energy storage and applications
- Energy fundamentals and conversion
- Energy and buildings
- Diagnostics and prognostics of energy conversion chains
- Chemical energy
- Energy use in industry
- Energy economics and policy
