The Archivio Italiano di Urologia e Andrologia

is the most prestigious urological journal in Italy.

The journal was founded in 1924 by three of the most famous urologists at that time: Ulisse Gardini from Bologna, Giovanni Battista Lasio from Milan and Giorgio Nicolich senior from Trieste. These urologists were among the founders of the Italian Society of Urology in 1921 and all of them were Presidents of the Society at different times: Nicolich from 1923 to 1924, Lasio from 1928 to 1930 and Gardini from 1932 to 1934.

The journal is indexed by Medline/Index Medicus, EMBASE/Excerpta Medica, Medbase/Current Opinion, SIIIC Data Base, Scopus, and by the bibliographic database (PubMed) of the National Institute of Health (NIH).

The Archivio Italiano di Urologia e Andrologia is the official journal of many Italian urological associations: UrOP, SIUrO, SIEUN and SIA. In the course of 2011, a section on urology nursing was established.
