HOUSE FERMENTS

13

Sustainability and waste reduction are at the core of our values at Navi. We pride ourselves in turning food preparation leftovers into delicious drinks, showcasing different fermentation techniques. We see this as a way of exploring creativity and preserving the flavours of produce that has a fleetingly short season or shelf life.

Tropical Marigold Kombucha

Made with marigold leaves picked from Julian's garden, pineapple, mango & coconut

Celeriac Juice Sake

A lacto-fermented brine produced from our kitchen when preserving our celeriac with white miso, serves as the basis for this drink. Then lightened with a bush tea blend & chamomile

Blackened Fingerlime & Fermented Sesame Cola

Leftover fingerlimes from the kitchen are blackened & fermented with sesame, pandan, cinnamon & tamarillo

MATEO - Organic Yerba Mate Soda (contains caffeine)

Our story begins when a Melbourne based chef wanted to brew his favourite high energy leaf Yerba Mate into something cold, fizzy & delicious. After months of playing in his home kitchen, three flavours emerged. Each stemmed from quality ingredients and crafted with care.

SAKE

Melbourne Sake- Australia's first sake brewery
After working together in a Melbourne wine bar in 2014, Matt Kingsley-Shaw and Quentin Hanley started taking an interest in the world of sake. As lovers of all things local and craft, they grew increasingly restless waiting for an Australian craft sake brewery and eventually decided to just do it themselves- and it was then that Melbourne Sake was born.

NAVI AT HOME

A collaboration with Robert Gordon has allowed us the opportunity to offer a 'piece of Navi' for your home through unique, functional, Melbourne made dinnerware.

Julian of Navi and Bobby of Robert Gordon worked together on this range to provide people with the opportunity to elevate their home dining experience with the unique glazes and designs similar to the crockery that Julian hand makes for the restaurant.

Three distinct reactive glazes encapsulates the Navi spirit- MARSH, DOCKLANDS and LOW TIDE. The glazes highlight the handmade nature of each piece and as a collection have been designed to be used as a set or easily mixed and matched.

Please head to our website RESTAURANTNAVI.COM.AU for more details on how to purchase the collection for your own home.
