THE ESSENTIALS— WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

The UNF School of Nursing is diligently revising the MSN curricula to align with the new American Association of Colleges of Nursing Essentials. This national guideline contains the “necessary curriculum content and expected competencies of graduates from baccalaureate, Master’s and Doctor of Nursing Practice programs.” As our faculty develop new courses and revise existing courses, we want your feedback. Please share your thoughts about what content should added/deleted/modified in our online nursing programs.

Your input is always valued and will be carefully reviewed during this process. Thank you!

See You There!

BRITTANI DALTON

UNF'S STUDENT SUCCESS COACH TEAM LEAD

Brittani joined UNF Online in 2023 after serving as an academic advisor in UNF's College of Arts and Sciences since 2021. She earned her Bachelor of Science in Middle Grades Education from East Carolina University and her Master of Science in Higher Education Policy and Student Affairs from West Chester University in Pennsylvania. WHAT IS YOUR ROLE AS A STUDENT SUCCESS COACH TEAM LEAD?

"I work with two other student success coaches to serve our online nursing community students. My job is to encourage excellence and support a high level of engagement with prospective and enrolled online students. I support students in developing personalized goals, connecting them with online resources, and celebrating their successes. I enjoy being able to set the tone for our team and appreciate the community we have built. I firmly believe the community among our team translates to our work with students and the support of UNF online learners."

HOW DOES THE UNF ONLINE STUDENT SUCCESS COACH TEAM SUPPORT ONLINE LEARNERS?

"UNF Online offers students a unique learning experience because we offer a boutique-style approach. Our online nursing students have what I like to call, "a micro-experience," meaning our Student Success Coach Team offers individualized support to each student. From the moment of interest throughout enrollment, the coaching team is here for you. We connect students with online resources and can be your link to the online Osprey community. Ultimately, the coaching team's goal is to be the student's partner in learning."

WHAT ENCOURAGEMENT WOULD YOU GIVE TO A PROSPECTIVE ONLINE STUDENT?

"I say go for it! UNF Online offers plenty of guidance and resources for our online students, you will not be alone on this journey. Online learning offers flexibility and affords students an opportunity that they might not have otherwise. Take advantage of it and take advantage of your Student Success Coach!"
