

JOHN OAKLEY SPENCER,
Ph.D., LL.D.

Dr. Spencer was born near Lynn, Susquehanna County, Pa., July 11, 1857. He was educated in the public schools and at Keystone Academy, Factoryville, Pa.; Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa.; Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill.; Columbia University, New York City; Oxford University, Oxford, England.

He went to Japan for educational work in the Tokyo Anglo-Japanese College, now named Aoyama Gakuin, where he spent fifteen years in various capacities. Upon his return from Japan, he accepted the principalship of the Hudson River Institute at Claverack, N. Y. It was from this position that Dr. Spencer was called to the Presidency of Morgan College in 1902.

Dr. Spencer is President of the Maryland Interracial Commission member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Association for the Handicapped, Inc., the Urban League, the Asiatic Society in Japan, and a member of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church. Dr. Spencer has spent his life working with minority races. He is a world traveler and a friend to mankind.

ROBERT P. MCGUINN
Attorney-at-Law

Scion of prominent Baltimore family, Robert Alexander McGuinn and Nannie S. McGuinn. Received his primary education at the Whittier School, Hampton Va.; secondary at Voorhies Industrial School, Denmark, S. C.; collegiate, Virginia Union University; graduate of New York Law School. At present is Executive Secretary of the Governor's Commission on Higher Education of Negroes, and is known for his activity in the Republican Party.