

A safe return to the CERN site

The main information you need and where to find out more

The COVID-19 crisis has led to a wealth of information available in different sources which are not always easy to find. Here's a quick-find guide to answer your questions.

If you are looking for...

Details of the four possible COVID-19 levels and corresponding measures

COVID-19 scale and measures

A comprehensive guide to returning to work on the CERN sites

A safe return to site

Key information about contracts, telework, health and safety, travel and leave, infrastructure, and other topics

General questions & answers

HSE
measures

Detailed information on CERN's current situation, health and safety measures, and response to COVID-19

HR
measures

Specific procedures on e.g. telework, absence management, subsistence, Swiss and French cards, and other administrative concerns

Current status of services and infrastructure, and general questions

Services availability

If your question is not answered through these channels, ask Quark the chatbot, or contact us at HR-Covid19@cern.ch.

