

Histories and Historicities in Amazonia

Edited by

NEIL L. WHITEHEAD

University of Nebraska Press

Lincoln and London

Contents

Neil L. Whitehead	vii	Introduction
		Landscape and Cartography
Domingo A. Medina	3	1. From Keeping It Oral to Writing to Mapping: The Kuyujani Legacy and the De'kuana Self-Demarcation Project
Silvia M. Vidal	33	2. The Arawak-Speaking Groups of Northwestern Amazonia: Amerindian Cartography as a Way of Preserving and Interpreting the Past
Neil L. Whitehead	59	3. Three Patamuna Trees: Landscape and History in the Guyana Highlands
		Contact and Power
Berta E. Pérez	81	4. Power Encounters
Nádia Farage	107	5. Rebellious Memories: The Wapishana in the Rupununi Uprising, Guyana, 1969
		The Cultural Transformation of History
Loretta Cormier	123	6. Decolonizing History: Ritual Transformation of the Past among the Guajá of Eastern Amazonia
Mary Riley	141	7. Guyanese History, Makuski Historicities, and Amerindian Rights

The Archaeology of History

Franz Scaramelli
and Kay Tarble

163 8. Caña: The Role of Aguardiente in the Colonization of the Orinoco

Rafael Gassón

179 9. Ceremonial Feasting in the Colombian and Venezuelan Llanos: Some Remarks on Its Sociopolitical and Historical Significance

203 Bibliography

227 List of Contributors

231 Index