

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	i
λ I. INTRODUCTION	1
II. BACKGROUND	10
A. History	10
1. The Creation of Pakistan	10
2. The 1956 Constitution and Ayub Khan	12
3. The Bhutto Years, 1972-77	15
4. Islamization Under Zia	17
5. Pakistan Since Zia	22
X B. The Status of Women	25
III. WOMEN IN CUSTODY	41
A. Number and Treatment	41
B. Significant Characteristics of the Female Prison Population	43
C. Why Women are in Custody	45
1. General Comments	45
2. Murder	45
3. The Hudood Ordinances	47
a. Discriminatory Effects	52
i. Conversion of Rape into Adultery/Fornication	53
ii. Wrongful Prosecution	61
iii. Limited Protection Against False Accusations (Qazf)	66
D. Conclusion	68
IV. TREATMENT OF WOMEN IN POLICE CUSTODY AND PRISON	69
A. Women in Police Lock-up	69
1. General Comments	69
2. Police Rules	70
3. Procedural Violations	72
4. Torture and Ill-Treatment in Police Lock-up	79
B. Treatment of Women in Prison	87
1. Prison Rules	87
2. Prison Conditions	89
3. Prolonged Detention Without Trial	91

V. RESPONSE OF THE JUDICIARY	96
A. General Comments	96
B. The Police Police Themselves	96
C. The Structure of the Judiciary	98
1. The Civil and Religious Court Systems	99
2. Diminishing Judicial Independence	101
a. Special Courts for Speedy Trial	106
b. The Shariat Act 1991	110
D. Discriminatory Police and Judicial Practices	114
1. Police and Lower Courts	114
2. Superior and Speedy Courts	118

VI. THE FLESH TRADE: BANGLADESHI WOMEN IN PAKISTANI JAILS	126
A. General Comments	126
B. Cases	131
C. The Role of Law-Enforcing Agencies	134
D. The Response of the Governments	138

VII. U.S. Policy	142
------------------	-----

VIII. CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS	147
A. In General	147
B. Police and Penal Reforms	148
1. Enforcement of Police Rules	148
2. Separate Police and Prosecutorial Functions	149
3. Police Training	149
C. Prison Conditions	149
1. Standard Minimum Rules	149
D. Judicial Reform	150
1. Elimination of Impunity	150
2. Independence of the Judiciary	150
3. Due Process	151
4. Arbitrary or Illegal Detention	151
5. Bail	151
6. Judicial Training	152
E. Trafficking in Women	152
F. Legal and Social Assistance	153
G. International Law	153