

Contents

Foreword , Dr. Edward F. Foulks	xiii
Preface	xvii
1 The Setting and the Subjects	1
Puerto Rico at the End of the Twentieth Century, 1
From Economic to Social Change: A Tale of Two Cultures, 3
Puerto Rican Paradoxes: Gender and Relationship, 4
Background of the Therapist-Spiritist Project, 7
Spiritism: A Popular Healing System, 12
Community-based Mental Health Care, 14
Physicians, 15
Summary, 16
Notes, 16
2 Backgrounds of the Healers in the Therapist-Spiritist Training Project	18
Who Becomes a Healer and Why? 18
Facts About Healers: Age, Education, and Families, 19
Observations, 30
Notes, 31
3 Callings: Healers' Initiatory Experiences	32
Antecedents to Becoming a Healer: The Spiritist Experience, 33
Initiatory Illnesses, 34
Normal or Abnormal? 37
Receiving Women: Initiation of Medical and Psychological Healers, 48
Conclusion, 49
Notes, 50

4	Healers' Work	51
	Doctors' View of Healing Work, 52
	Mental Health Workers' View of Their Healing Work, 54
	The Work of Spiritists, 59
	Therapeutic Relationships, 61
	Spiritists' and Therapists' Work Compared, 66
	Notes, 70
5	The Distaff Side: Pitfalls and Problems of Being a Healer	71
	The Feminine Eternally on Trial, 74
	Witchcraft, 76
	Illness and Contagion, 78
	Coping with Contagion, 84
	General Observations on the Problems of Women as Healers, 87
	Notes, 89
6	Psychiatric Illness, Emotional Disorder, and Women's Experience	90
	Perspectives on Mental Disorder and Emotional Distress, 90
	Psychiatric Illness Among Puerto Ricans, 91
	Naturally Occurring Complaints of Women: Complaint Profiles, 96
	Summary, 105
	Notes, 106
7	Dysphoric Mood and Depression	109
	The Expression of Dysphoria, 110
	Experiences of Depression and Dysthymia, 113
	Key Events and Life Situations of Depressed Women, 123
	Treatment Strategies for Depression: Therapists and Spiritists Compared, 124
	Conclusion, 128
	Notes, 130
8	Madness and Schizophrenia	131
	The Meaning and Fear of Locura (Craziness), 131

	Spiritist Notions of Madness, 132
	Perspectives on Hallucinations, Delusions, and Visions, 139
	Further Thoughts on Hallucinations and Visions, 142
	Treatment and Outcome of Schizophrenia, 145
	Observations and Thoughts, 149
	Notes, 150
9	Nerves and Anxiety Disorders	151
	The Nature of Nervousness, Intranquility, and Ataques de Nervios , 153
	Gender, Nervousness, and Anxiety Disorders, 155
	Cases of "Anxiety Disorders" and "Nerves," 156
	Clinic Findings, 160
	Fatigue, Weakness, and Chest Pains, 162
	Treatment of Anxiety Disorders and Nerves, 163
	Panic Disorder, Agoraphobia, and "Development" in Spiritism, 165
	Conclusions and Further Observations, 168
	Notes, 171
10	Somatic Styles, Bodily Ills, and Somatoform Disorders	173
	Sexual Socialization and Somatic References to Distress, 175
	Comparative Views of Body and Healing: Doctors and Spiritists, 178
	Diagnostic Categories and Case Narratives, 180
	Conclusions and Observations on Bodily Distress, 194
	Notes, 196
11	Approaching the Self Through Illness and Healing	197
	Psychology of Women in Puerto Rico: Medial Women, 200

Conclusion, 205

Notes, 206

Appendix: Methodology

209

Bibliography

219

Index

229