

Contents

List of tables	vii
Preface	ix
List of acronyms	xi
1 Introduction	1
The purpose of this book	1
The Third World as a political concept	2
A note on the classification of countries	5
Contending perspectives on development cooperation	8
The structure of the book	11
Notes	11
2 The Third World in the world economy	13
Trade	15
Investment	19
Aid	22
Conclusion	23
Notes	24
3 Regimes, international organisations and development diplomacy	26
Regimes and regime theory	27
International organisations as international institutions	39
Development diplomacy	46
Conclusion	47
Notes	48
4 The IMF and the Third World	51
The origins of the IMF	53

The IMF in the international monetary system	56
The IMF: organisational structure and political process	65
The Third World's demands and the IMF's response	73
Conclusion	90
Notes	93
5 The World Bank and the Third World	101
The origins of the World Bank	103
The World Bank: organisational structure and political process	104
The evolution of the World Bank	111
The World Bank as development agency	120
Conclusion	135
Notes	136
6 The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and the Third World	141
The origins of GATT	142
GATT: organisational structure and political process	144
GATT and the international trading system: trade liberalisation and the 'new protectionism'	150
The developing countries in GATT	155
The Uruguay Round	167
Conclusion	173
Notes	173
7 The United Nations Conference on Trade and Development and the Third World	179
The origins of UNCTAD	181
UNCTAD: organisational structure and political process	184
UNCTAD and international economic reform: 1964–92	191
Conclusion	205
Notes	206
8 Justice, efficiency and international economic organisations	211
International economic organisations and efficiency	212
Justice and international society	215
International economic organisations and global distributive justice	221
Notes	223
Index	225