

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

PART I. RACE, CULTURE, AND ANTHROPOLOGY

1. Historiographical Concerns in the History of Anthropology 9
2. Franz Boas's Paradox and the African American Intelligentsia 16
3. A Gifted Amateur: The Case of George Washington Ellis 48

PART II. BETWEEN UNIVERSALISM AND PARTICULARISM

4. The Internalist-Externalist Controversy in the History of Racial Thought 63
5. Booker T. Washington: Mythmaker 67
6. Ulysses G. Weatherly: Anglo-American Moderate 83
7. A Kind of Conservative: Monroe Nathan Work 93

Conclusion 120

Notes 127

Index 145