

CONTENTS

Preface: The Destination Was “Progressive” Society: The Roads and the Travelers Were Diverse vi

Introduction: The “White City” and Dark City of 1893 1

- 1 The City: The Crossroads of Social Justice 13
 - 2 Democracy Must Have a Social Dimension 33
 - 3 The Rights of Individuals in a Democratic Society 57
 - 4 The Corrupt Bargain 77
 - 5 Reforming the State 99
 - 6 The New Social Politics 119
 - 7 The Battle Against Monopoly Capitalism 141
 - 8 The Competing Publics of Conservation and Environmentalism 161
 - 9 Money, Morals, and Modernity: The Consumer Society 181
 - 10 Bringing Democracy to the World 199
 - 11 Domestic Troubles, Foreign Engagement 219
 - 12 Gender and Democracy in War and Peace 243
 - 13 Into the Twenties: Roads Taken . . . and Not 261
- Conclusion: An Imperfect World 283

Index 287