

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction	xi
Ellis Mount
THEME ONE
The Life-Long Affair: Scientific Careers and Science Journals	1
The Serials Librarian as a Shaper of Scholars and Scholarship	3
Negotiating Journal Demands With Young Scientists Using Lists Derived From Thesis Advisor Records	11
New Specialized Journals, Mature Scientists, and Shifting Loyalties	25
Journal Weeding in Relation to Declining Faculty Member Publishing	33
THEME TWO
The Role of Language and Cultural Forces in Shaping Journals and Their Users	43

English Language Trends in German Basic Science Journals: A Potential Collection Tool	45
Tony Stankus Rashelle Schlessinger Bernard S. Schlessinger
American Authors in Foreign Science Journals: Reviewing the Range of Initial Attitudes and Adjusting Library Investment to Client Experiences	57
The Americanization of Journal Loyalties of Foreign-Born, Foreign-Trained Scientists and Physicians Who Emigrate to the United States	71
Tony Stankus Kevin Rosseel
 THEME THREE
What Journals Tell Us About the Fields They Cover	85
Collection Development: Journals for Biochemists	87
Journals for Anatomists in Medical versus Nonmedical Biological Research Institutions	111
Selecting Multispecialty Mathematics Research Journals via Their Underlying Subject Emphases	135
Tony Stankus Virgil Diodato
 THEME FOUR
Perennial Discussions Involving Journals	153
Looking for Tutors and Brokers: Comparing the Expectations of Book and Journal Evaluators	155
Handle With Care: Use and Citation Data for Science Journal Management	173
Tony Stankus Barbara Rice

Publication Quality Indicators for Tenure or Promotion Decisions: What Can the Librarian Ethically Report?	189
Barbara A. Rice Tony Stankus
One Researcher, One Journal, One Research Paper: Workable Budgeting Schemes at the Science Departmental Level	199
Tony Stankus William Littlefield
Index	209