

Table of Contents

Preface	IX
Agenda of the Seminar	XI
List of Participants	XV
Participating Vendors	XXV
Charles Hildreth
Online public access catalogues	1
Helmut Vogt
The future of online catalogues in the northern areas of Germany	57
Alan Seal
Data structures, MARC and online access	71
Liv Holm
Design of databases as good catalogues	87
Joergen Rishoej
From database-production to an online catalogue	107
David Buckle
OCLC Europe: bibliographic database services for catalogue conversion	125
John Ferguson
Future of online catalogues. UTLAS in Europe a personal view	137
Gisela Süle
Problems of duplicate records, standards and quality control	145
Siv Hunstad
Problems of duplicate records	169
Piet Schoots
Browsers in Rotterdam: popular access to the database	203

Janet Kinsella
"Prospects for browsing": experimental approaches to the presentation of brief entries and the design of 'browse screens'	227
Sinikka Koskiala
The importance of an effective retrieval program for online catalogue use Paper not received in time
Genevieve Merrin
Access points and search methods in the Sibil system with special reference to Boolean and tree search	243
Alan Jeffreys
First experiences with online public catalogues, OCLC's LS/2000, at Newcastle	277
Ernst Kohl
The online union catalogue of parliamentary and governmental institutions in the Federal Republic of Germany	287
Look Costers, J. Buys
The results of an experiment with an online public access catalogue	339
Kate Bivins Noerr, Peter Noerr
A microcomputer system for online catalogues	359
David Raitt
Online catalogues: the facts, the features, the future	393
Katarzyna de Brisis *
Online catalogue systems on microcomputers: problems connected with development of such systems	413
Marion Ralls *
Retrospective catalogue conversion: policy, standards, strategy and quality control	429

* papers originally prepared for the conference, but not presented personally