

Contents

List of Figures, Map and Diagram	vii
List of Tables	ix
Preface	xi
PART I WOMEN POLICE WORLDWIDE
1 Women Police and Societal Change	3
2 Three Decades of Research on Women Police: What Has Been Learned?	21
PART II WOMEN POLICE IN A TRADITIONAL SOCIETY
3 Women Police in India	45
4 Women Police in Tamil Nadu	59
PART III STUDIES OF WOMEN POLICE IN TAMIL NADU
5 Tamil Nadu Women Police in the 1980s	73
6 Tamil Nadu All Women Police Units—An Assessment	85
7 Women Police in the Battalions	123
PART IV WOMEN POLICING IN A CHANGING SOCIETY
8 Reconciling the Needs of the Police, Women Officers, and Tamil Nadu	137
9 Prescriptions for Twenty-first Century Women Policing: Theory, Research, and Policy	149
 Bibliography	 175
Index	223

List of Figures, Map and Diagram

Figures

1.1	Representation of sworn women police officers in the United States (1971–2005)	8
1.2	Brown's model of integration of women into policing	15
4.1	Nature of cases dealt with by the AWPU	66
5.1	Preferred role and style of police department by women officers (n=183) in Tamil Nadu, 1988	78
6.1	Nature of problem (n=60)	105
6.2	Processing of domestic dispute and domestic violence cases at AWPU in Tamil Nadu, India (the IAS model)	113
9.1	Integration process of women policing in Tamil Nadu	150

Map

4.1	Map of India showing position of Tamil Nadu	59
-----	---	----

Diagram

4.1	Tamil Nadu police—organizational chart	60
-----	--	----

List of Tables

1.1	Characteristics of policing models	11
1.2	Summary of studies reported in the book	19
2.1	Primary focus of 487 published studies on women police (1970–2005)	22
2.2	Female police personnel in selected countries (2000 and 1997) (percentage of total strength)	34
3.1	Population by urban/rural residence in 2001, India	45
3.2	Sex ratio trends in India (1901–2001)	46
3.3	Constitutional guarantees for Indian women	47
3.4	Percentage of women police in Indian states (as of 12/31/04)	52
3.5	Percentage women police in Indian states by rank	53
3.6	Number of women police stations in Indian States	55
3.7	Jobs assigned to women officers in India in the 1970s	56
4.1	Actual police strength of Tamil Nadu including district armed police in 2004	61
4.2	Strength and agility requirements for men and women police constables	62
4.3	Distribution of all women police stations in Tamil Nadu	65
5.1	Capability of women police officers (n=183) compared with male officers, Tamil Nadu, 1988 (responses in percent)	75
5.2	Women officers' (n=183) interest in specific police activities, Tamil Nadu, 1988	76
5.3	Deployment experience of 183 women police officers in Tamil Nadu (1988)	77
5.4	Summary of the results of the discriminant analysis (n=286)	83
6.1	Personal characteristics of women officers in 1988 (n=183) and in 1994 (n=61)	87
6.2	Prior deployment experience of women police	88
6.3	Preferred role of women officers	89
6.4	Preferred style of police department	90
6.5	Career commitment	90
6.6	All petitions and dowry cases at three AWPU's in Chennai, 1999–2001	100
6.7	Dowry-related petitions reported at the AWPU's in Chennai, 1999–2001 (n=474)	101

6.8	Actions taken in regard to dowry-related petitions reported at the AWPU's in Chennai, 1999–2001 (n=474)	101
6.9	Outcomes of dowry related petitions reported at the AWPU's in Chennai, 1999–2001 (n=474)	102
6.10	Demographic data for petitioners interviewed (n=60)	104
6.11	Petitioners' perspective on the service provided by the AWPU's and the outcome (n=60)	106
6.12	Danger score sheet	121
7.1	Demographic characteristics of the 1997 recruits	124
7.2	Preferred role of female police officers in Tamil Nadu	126
9.1	Five groups of women police in Tamil Nadu	159
9.2	Comparison of integrated and gendered policing models in terms of policing style and the status and self-image of women officers	163