

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
State of Research	4
What is a Pinkas?	7
Sources	11
Historical Background of the Netherlands from the Seventeenth to the Late Eighteenth Century	20
The Jewish Population in the Dutch Republic until the Eighteenth Century	23
Jewish Autonomy in Ashkenaz and in the Netherlands	29
Chapter One Governing a Jewish Community	33
Parnassim and Their Functions	34
Election Procedures	40
Terms of Office	52
Families and Individuals in Community Leadership	54
The Authority of the Leadership and Its Acknowledgement	63
Chapter Two Keeping a Pinkas	92
Standard Contents of the Pinkassim	93
Local Idiosyncrasies	96
Chapter Three Officials of the Jewish Community	114
Rabbis and Poskim	114
Cantors, Ritual Slaughterers, Teachers, and Beadles	134
Chapter Four Members, Origins, and Patterns of Migration	144
Chapter Five Revenue and Finance	157
Chapter Six Hevras and Charities	165
Chapter Seven Intercommunal Frameworks	176

Contacts between Communities	176
Regional Organisations	182
Chapter Eight Conclusions	187
Abbreviations	191
Bibliography	193
Appendix One The Governors of the Jewish Communities	197
Appendix Two Selected Records from the Pinkassim	208
Index	229