

Contents

Preface	xi
Part A Consumers in the marketplace	2
1 An introduction to consumer behaviour	4
Consumption in Europe? The European consumer?	5
Consumers' impact on marketing strategy	10
Marketing's impact on consumers	15
Consumer behaviour as a field study	21
An overview of consumer behaviour research methods	25
Chapter summary	34
Consumer behaviour challenge	35
Part B Consumers as individuals	36
2 Perception	38
Introduction	39
The perceptual process	39
Sensory systems	43
Sensory thresholds	49
Perceptual selection	51
Interpretation: deciding what things mean	54
Chapter summary	60
Consumer behaviour challenge	62
3 Learning and memory	64
Behavioural learning theories	65
Marketing applications of learning principles	71
The role of learning in memory	75
Chapter summary	87
Consumer behaviour challenge	89

4	Motivation, values and involvement	90
	Introduction	91
	The motivation process	91
	Motivational strength	92
	Motivational direction	93
	Consumer involvement	99
	Values	104
	MECCAs	110
	Hidden motives: probing beneath the surface	112
	Needs and wants: do marketers manipulate consumers?	114
	Chapter summary	118
	Consumer behaviour challenge	119
5	Attitudes	120
	The power of attitudes	121
	The content of attitudes	122
	Forming attitudes	127
	Attitude models	133
	Using attitudes to predict behaviour	137
	Chapter summary	142
	Consumer behaviour challenge	143
6	Attitude change and interactive communications	144
	Changing attitudes through communication	145
	The source	152
	The message	158
	The source versus the message: sell the steak or the sizzle?	169
	Chapter summary	172
	Consumer behaviour challenge	173
7	The self	174
	Perspectives on the self	175
	Consumption and self-concept	180
	Gender roles	184
	Body image	192
	Chapter summary	201
	Consumer behaviour challenge	202
Part C	Consumers as decision-makers	204
8	Individual decision-making	206
	Consumers as problem-solvers	207
	Problem recognition	211
	Information search	212

Evaluation of alternatives	220
Product choice: selecting among alternatives	224
Chapter summary	233
Consumer behaviour challenge	234
9 The purchase situation, post-purchase evaluation and product disposal	236
Introduction	237
Situational effects on consumer behaviour	238
The purchase environment	248
Post-purchase satisfaction	256
Product disposal and environmentalism	258
Chapter summary	265
Consumer behaviour challenge	267
10 Group influence, opinion leadership and diffusion of innovations	268
Introduction	269
Reference groups	269
Conformity	276
Word-of-mouth communication	281
Opinion leadership	285
The diffusion of innovations	292
Chapter summary	297
Consumer behaviour challenge	299
Part D A portrait of European consumers	300
11 European family structures and household decision-making	302
Introduction	303
The family	303
The intimate corporation: family decision-making	312
Children as decision-makers: consumers-in-training	317
Chapter summary	324
Consumer behaviour challenge	324
12 Income and social class	326
Consumer spending and economic behaviour	327
Social class	332
How social class affects purchase decisions	341
Status symbols	346
Chapter summary	349
Consumer behaviour challenge	350

13	Age subcultures	352
	Age and consumer identity	353
	The teen market: it totally rules	355
	Baby busters: 'Generation X'	360
	Baby boomers	362
	The grey market	364
	Chapter summary	369
	Consumer behaviour challenge	370
Part E	Culture and European lifestyles	372
14	Cultural influences on consumer behaviour	374
	Culture and consumption	375
	Understanding culture	377
	Myths and rituals	381
	Sacred and profane consumption	390
	Chapter summary	396
	Consumer behaviour challenge	397
15	Lifestyles and European cultures	400
	Lifestyles and consumption choices	401
	Lifestyle marketing	404
	Geographic influences on lifestyles	417
	Ethnic and religious subcultures	428
	Euro-consumers: do they exist?	433
	Chapter summary	435
	Consumer behaviour challenge	436
16	Cultural change processes	438
	Introduction	439
	The fashion system	445
	Global marketing and culture	455
	Postmodernism?	466
	Chapter summary	470
	Consumer behaviour challenge	471
	Case study problems	472
	Glossary	494
	Notes	505
	Indexes	562
	Author index	562
	Product/company/name index	569
	Subject index	573