

Narratives of Life: Mediating Age

edited by

Heike Hartung
and Roberta Maierhofer

---

LIT

Contents

Heike Hartung, Roberta Maierhofer

Introduction

5

Part I: Age Narratives of Self and Other

Margaret Morganroth Gullette

Our Best and Longest Running Story: Why is telling progress narrative so necessary, and so difficult?

21

Rüdiger Kunow

Narrative as Intercultural Drama: Life-Writing by Aged Migrants

38

Gerben J. Westerhof

Identity Construction in the Third Age: The Role of Self-Narratives

55

Robert Goff

The Joy of Aging: Alex Comfort and the Popularization of Gerontology

71

Part II: Allegories of Old Age, Time, and Gender

Georgiana Banita

Philip Roth's Fictions of Intimacy and the Aging of America

91

Tanja Nusser

"So he will spare him four-and-twenty years, letting him live in all voluptuousness" – Faust and Time

113

Antje Grötzsch

Avarice as an old Woman: Age and Gender in the Image of Vice 129

Part III: Mediating Male and Female Old Age

Gabriele Mueller

The Aged Traveler: Cinematic Representations of Post-Retirement Masculinity
149

Aagje Swinnen

“One Nice Thing about Getting Old is that Nothing Frightens You” -
From Page to Screen: Rethinking Women’s Old Age in Howl’s Moving Castle
167

Marion Fries-Dieckmann

Performing Old Age on Stage: Selected Plays by Beckett, Pinter and Stoppard
183

The Contributors

199