

The Risorgimento Revisited

Nationalism and Culture in Nineteenth-Century Italy

Edited by

Silvana Patriarca

Professor of History, Fordham University, New York, USA

and

Lucy Riall

Professor of History, Birkbeck, University of London, UK

palgrave
macmillan

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction: Revisiting the Risorgimento Silvana Patriarca and Lucy Riall	1
1 European Romanticism and the Italian Risorgimento Paul Ginsborg	18
2 The Hero and the People Adrian Lyttelton	37
3 From the People to the Masses: Political Developments in Italian Opera from Rossini to Mascagni Simonetta Chiappini	56
4 Discovering Politics: Action and Recollection in the First Mazzinian Generation Arianna Arisi Rota and Roberto Balzani	77
5 Mazzini and/in Love Ros Pesman	97
6 Between Two Eras: Challenges Facing Women in the Risorgimento Marina d'Amelia	115
7 A Patriotic Emotion: Shame and the Risorgimento Silvana Patriarca	134
8 Men at War: Masculinity and Military Ideals in the Risorgimento Lucy Riall	152
9 The Remembrance of Heroes Alberto Mario Banti	171
10 Anti-Catholicism and the Culture War in Risorgimento Italy Manuel Borutta	191

11	Italian Jews and the 1848–49 Revolutions: Patriotism and Multiple Identities Tullia Catalan	214
12	Liberalism and Empires in the Mediterranean: The View-Point of the Risorgimento Maurizio Isabella	232
13	The Risorgimento: A Multinational Movement Dominique Reill	255
	Bibliography	270
	Index	297