

Contents

Acknowledgements	8
Introduction: Politics and Identities on the «Margins» of New Europe	10
Tsy pylma Darieva and Wolfgang Kaschuba
Old and New Europe: Representations, Imaginations, Stagings	25
Wolfgang Kaschuba
Icons
«Windows» Project Ad Marginem or a «Divided History» of Divided Cities? A Case Study of the Russian-Estonian Borderland	43
Olga Brednikova
From Silenced to Voiced: Changing Politics of Memory of Loss in Armenia	65
Tsy pylma Darieva
Iconography of Historical Memory and Armenian National Identity at the End of the 1980s	89
Harutyun Marutyan
Neoliberal Imaginations, Subject Formation, and Other National Things in Latvia, the Land that Sings	114
Dace Dzenovska

Narratives

- Estonia and its Escape from the East: The Relevance of the Past in Russian-Estonian Relations 139
Karsten Brüggemann

- Bargaining Armenian-ness: National Politics of Identity in the Soviet Union after 1945 166
Matke Lehmann

- Armenian Statehood and the Problems of European Integration as Reflected in School Education 190
Artur Mkrtchian

- Soviet Armenian Identity and Cultural Representation 205
Hrach Bayadyan

- Yet Another Europe? Constructing and Representing Identities
in Lithuania Two Years after EU Accession 220
Asta Vonderau

- Histories of Violence: National Identity and Public
Memory of Occupation and Terror in Estonia 242
David Feest

Rites

- Troubles and Hopes – Armenian Family, Home and Nation 267
Levon Abrahamian

- Celebrating Identities in Post-Soviet Georgia 282
Florian Mühlfried

- Barth, «Yeraz», and Post-Soviet Azerbaijan: Inventing
a New Sub-Ethnic Identity 301
Babodir Sidikov

- The Staging of Politics and the «Folklorization» of Political Discourse 322
Asbot Voskanian

Afterword» Representations of the National on the Fringes of Europe	337
Jürg Baberowski
Notes on the Contributors	345
Index of Geographical and Political Names	349
List of Figures.....	353