

Register of Credit Unions Credit Union Act, 1997 (as amended)

The societies listed below are registered by the Central Bank of Ireland as credit unions pursuant to the Credit Union Act, 1997 (as amended)

Registration of credit unions by the Central Bank of Ireland does not make the Central Bank of Ireland liable for any financial loss incurred by a person because the credit union, any of its officers, employees, or agents has contravened or failed to comply with a provision of these regulations, or any condition of their registration, or because the credit union has become subject to an insolvency process.
