

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Notes on contributors	xiii
List of abbreviations	xxi
Section One: Tributes	1
1 A tribute to Olof Palme Rajiv Gandhi	3
2 An internationalist vision Fidel Castro	6
3 Champion of justice and peace Ingvar Carlsson	10
4 The Scandinavian perspective on the North—South dialogue Gro Harlem Brundtland	15
Section Two: The Politics of Power	31
5 North-South: the task ahead Willy Brandt	33
6 The art of the possible, or the politics of radical transformation Immanuel Wallerstein	38
7 Issues in North-South dialogue Kofi Buenor Hadjor	46
Section Three: The Global Economic/Information Order: Calls for Change	61
8 The Social Democratic parties and the New International Economic Order Neil Kinnock	63
9 East—West—South relations in the world economy Andre Gunder Frank	77
10 Latin American debt: the choices ahead Robert Pollin and Eduardo Zepeda	102

Section Four: The Global Political Order: National Powers and Superpowers	115
11 The arms race as an impediment to Third World development Luis Echeverria	117
12 Superpower rivalries in the Third World Frank Furedi	124
Section Five: The Non-Aligned Movement	147
13 The role of the Non-Aligned Movement in global politics Robert Mugabe	149
14 Olof Palme and the legacy of Bandung: a balance sheet Fred Halliday and Maxine Molyneux	157
Section Six: The Mechanisms of Dialogue	167
15 The Non-Aligned Movement and the New International Division of Labour Timothy Shaw	169
16 At the receiving end of the North—South dialogue Julius Nyerere	197
17 The politics of aid Judith Hart	214
18 Swedish development and foreign policy Thord Palmlund	228
Section Seven: Olof Palme—Liberation and World Peace	245
19 The Africa of Olof Palme Basil Davidson	247
20 Olof Palme and the liberation of Southern Africa Oliver Tambo	256
21 Olof Palme and the Middle East Anoushiravan Ehteshami	272
Section Eight: On Strategies for Development	293
22 North—South dialogue: towards a meaningful agenda A. M. Babu	295
23 After Olof Palme: What needs to be done? Michael Manley	312
24 Western efforts for change: Sweden's future role Jngvar Carlsson	324
Section Nine: Olof Palme: The Man	331
25 Olof Palme: a portrait Gunnar Fredriksson	333