

Contents

INTRODUCTION	13
LIFE OF THE ARTIST	22
Pupils: De Bisschop and Kneller	22
SUBJECTS	26
HISTORY PAINTING
Early works 29; Rembrandt and Van den Eeckhout 29; Lastman 30; Signatures 31; Peripeteia 34; Independence from Rembrandt 36; Dutch history painting 36; The new style 38; Disguise 39; Around 1650 39; 1650-1654 40; 1654-1655 Utrecht influence 40; Pyrrhus and Fabricius 42; Competition 44; Stylistic requirements 44; Classical phase c. 1656 46; Later years, allegories and pastorales 46; Commissions 48
Bol as a painter of government commissions	50
'Thus surrenders no man of state' 51; 'Punishment and reward' 52; Rewards – Gifts for the temple 53; Charity 54; 'Here is the purse' 54
PORTRAITS
Sober dignity, 1642-1645 56; 'Tronies' and so-called self-portraits, 1644-shortly after 1650 57; The governors of the Leper Asylum, 1649 59; The Flemish influence 60; Hofwijck and Zorghvliet 61; Ladies and gentlemen in a landscape setting 62; Naval heroes 63; Ladies and gentlemen in interiors 64; 'Tronie-Portraits' 66; Governors and marksmen 68
CONCLUSION	69
DOCUMENTS	71
CATALOGUE RAISONNE
HISTORY	89
Bible, Old Testament 89; New Testament 96; Mythology and ancient history 97; Allegory, literature 105; Decoration Town Hall and Admiralty 108
PORTRAITS AND 'TRONIEN'	118
Men : Known as 'early self-portraits' 118
Other men : With beret or cap 121; With turban or helmet 123; The man with the fat face 129; Turned to the right, in interior 130; Turned to the right, outdoor setting 133; Turned to the left 135
Women : In 17th-century costume with ruff 136; In 17th-century costume, with different collar 138; In fancy costume, turned to the right 139; In fancy costume, turned to the left 139
Children 142
Companion pictures 144
Groups : Two persons 151; Three and more persons 153
MISCELLANY	158

DOUBTFUL ATTRIBUTIONS	159
REJECTED ATTRIBUTIONS	162
Old Testament 162; New Testament 164; Saints 166; Mythology, ancient history, literature, allegory 166
PORTRAITS
Single figures : Men. Men wearing a turban 168
Men wearing a conspicuous cap or beret:
a. At a table or desk with books etc. 168
b. Others, viewed frontally 169
c. Others turned to the left 170
d. Others turned to the right 172
Men wearing a hat:
a. Viewed frontally or turned to the left 175
b. Turned to the right 176
Men, bareheaded or wearing a skull-cap:
a. Turned to the left, one or both hands visible 177
b. Turned to the left, no hand(s) visible 179
c. Turned to the right, two hands visible 179
d. Turned to the right, no hand(s) visible 182
Single figures : Women
a. Viewed frontally 183
b. Turned to the left, hand(s) visible, wearing a mill-stone ruff 183
c. Turned to the left, hand(s) visible, wearing a flat white collar 184
d. Turned to the left, others 185
e. Turned to the left, no hand(s) visible 187
f. Turned to the right 188
Single figures : Young children 190
Companion picture 190
Groups of three and more figures 191
Miscellany 192
CONCORDANCE to the 1976 Dutch edition	193
FIGURES
PLATES OF WORKS BY BOL
FAMILY TREE	after Plate 204
ABBREVIATED LITERATURE	363
INDEX	368