

Contents

Acknowledgements	page vii
List of abbreviations	ix
Introduction	1
1 The formation of the Fascist movement	6
The first Fascist meeting	6
The leader	10
Post-war economic and political problems	16
The 'Fascists of the first hour'	19
2 Expansion and breakthrough, 1920-1922	25
The challenge of D'Annunzio	25
Squadristo: the Fascist offensive	28
The March on Rome	34
3 Transition: from coalition to regime, 1922-1928	41
A government which governs	41
The entry of the Nationalists	45
The Matteotti crisis	47
The establishment of the Fascist regime	52
4 The construction of the regime: economic and social developments	58
The Decennale of 1932	58
Economic policy	60
Social reforms	65
Education and youth movements	66
Women	71
Dopolavoro	73

Contents

The Lateran Pacts	75
5 The search for an ideology: intellectuals, propaganda and racism	81
The Manifesto of the Fascist intellectuals, 21 April 1925	81
Romanità	85
Propaganda	88
Racism	95
6 Diplomacy, war and collapse	101
Foreign policy: the quiet years, 1922-35	101
Ethiopia	110
The Axis	115
War and defeat	121
The coup of July 1943 and its consequences	128
Epilogue: the legacy	137
Selected documents	143
Bibliographical essay	168
Index	173