

Table of Contents

Trade Relations after Brexit: An Introduction Friedemann Kainer &amp; René Repasi	7
---	---

Part 1 State of Affairs

Brexit – The Negotiation Position of the EU 27 Elmar Brok &amp; Anne Liekenbrock	17
--	----

Understanding the UK negotiating position on Brexit Patrick Minford	43
---	----

Economic Implications of leaving the EU for the United Kingdom Jürgen Matthes	59
---	----

Part 2 Foundations of a future relationship between the EU and the UK

Brexit, WTO and EU Trade Policy Christoph Herrmann	97
--	----

Free Trade Agreements as a Means to Maintain and to Establish Integrated Markets René Repasi	117
--	-----

Market Access and Standards in the Future Relation between the EU and the UK Friedemann Kainer	149
--	-----

Part 3 Specific Issues of Future Trade Agreements between the EU and the UK

Balancing sovereignty, trade and Northern-Irish peace: Free movement of goods post-Brexit	181
Armin Cuyvers
Brexit and the Free Movement of Services: Challenges and Regulatory Solutions	213
Gavin Barrett
Brexit and Financial Regulation	247
Wolf-Georg Ringe
Citizens' Rights after Brexit: The Withdrawal Agreement and the Future Mobility Framework	293
Menelaos Markakis
Brexit: Challenges and Regulatory Solutions in the field of Competition Policy and State Aid	331
Florian Wagner-von Papp
EU-UK procurement-based trade relations after Brexit: Some thoughts	379
Albert Sanchez-Graells
Legal protection and legal uniformity: Procedural and institutional rules in European-British trade relations after Brexit	397
Peter-Christian Müller-Graff	