

Table of Contents

Introduction: Situating Power in Dynamics of Securitization Andreas Langenohl and Regina Kreide	7
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---

Part I – Conceptualizing the Power Dimensions of Securitization

Dynamics of Power in Securitization: Towards a Relational Understanding Andreas Langenohl	25
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

The Power of Border Politics: On Migration in and outside Europe Regina Kreide	67
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Securitization as Hegemony Hannah Broecker and Carola Westermeier	91
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------	----

Legitimacy and Security from a Historical Perspective: A Case Study in the History of Terrorism Carola Dietze	135
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Part II – Historical and Contemporary Manifestations of the Power Dynamics in Securitization

The Legitimation of Council Rule Through Vedute of the City and Territory of Nürnberg from the Sixteenth to the Eighteenth Century: Visualizing Insecurity within an Image of Secured Order Katharina Krause	177
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----

Table of Contents

“A question of power and war:” Social Conflict in Hamburg and London in the Late Nineteenth Century Christine Krüger and Friedrich Lenger	239
Power, Security, and Public International Law – an Intricate Relationship Thilo Marauhn and Marie-Christin Stenzel	265
Securitized State Building? The Camerounian Decolonization in Conflict Maria Ketzmerick	291
Reconfigurations of Security: Governing Heroin Users in Frankfurt am Main, 1975–1995 Sebastian Haus	325
Reassembling Insecurity: The Power of Materiality Ana Ivasiuc	367
List of Contributors	395