

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Table of Cases	xv
Table of Legislation	xvii
List of Abbreviations	xxxiii
List of Contributors	xxxvii

I GENERAL

1. Governing Financial Institutions: Law and Regulation, Conduct and Culture
Danny Busch, Guido Ferrarini, and Gerard van Solinge
I. Introduction	1.01
II. Basic Concepts	1.03
III. Lessons from the Financial Crisis	1.12
IV. Global Principles	1.16
V. Corporate Governance and Prudential Regulation: Complements or Substitutes?	1.25
VI. The Role of Conduct and Culture	1.31
2. Corporate Governance of Financial Institution: In Need of Cross-Sectoral Regulation
Jens-Hinrich Binder
I. Introduction	2.01
II. Taking Stock: Governance-Related Regulation in EU Legislation after the Global Financial Crisis	2.06
III. The Case for Cross-Sectoral Governance-Regulation Re-examined—A Functional Approach	2.20
IV. Conclusions	2.30

3. Comparative Regulation of Corporate Governance in the Insurance Sector
Arthur van den Hurk and Michele Siri
I. Introduction	3.01
II. Governance-Related Regulation in EU Insurance Legislation	3.08
III. Risk Management	3.41
IV. The Actuarial Function	3.54
V. The ORSA Process	3.55
VI. Internal Control System	3.58
VII. Governance Regulation Supporting Quantitative Requirements	3.61
VIII. Conclusions	3.70
4. The Governance of Banks and the Requirement of Resolvability: Fundamental Change in Perspective?
Bart Bierens
I. Introduction	4.01
II. Complex Banks and a Global Financial Crisis	4.02
III. The EU Banking Union	4.05
IV. Resolvability	4.08
V. The Resolvable Bank: A Blue Print	4.12
VI. Decision to Remove Impediments	4.28
VII. The Transition to Being Resolvable	4.34
VIII. Rethinking the Governance of Banks	4.37
IX. Conclusion	4.42
5. Corporate Law Versus Financial Regulatory Rules: The Impact on Managing Directors and Shareholders of Banks
Kitty Lieveise and Claartje Bulten
I. Introduction	5.01
II. Taking Stock: The Potential Tension between Corporate Law and Financial Regulatory Rules	5.05
III. Impact on the Board	5.11
IV. Impact on Shareholders	5.38

V.	Impact of the Single Rulebook on the Interpretation of Corporate Interest	5.46
VI.	Conclusions	5.56

II GOVERNANCE STRUCTURES AND REGULATION

6. Non-Shareholder Voice in Bank Governance: Board Composition, Performance, and Liability

Paul Davies and Klaus J Hopt

I.	Bank Governance and Corporate Governance	6.01
II.	Supervisory Approval of Bank Directors and Senior Managers	6.07
III.	Debt-Holders and Bank Governance	6.17
IV.	Composition of the Boards of Banks	6.32
V.	Liability of Bank Directors and Other Key Function Holders	6.52

7. Responsibility of Directors of Financial Institutions

Steven L Schwarcz, Aleaha Jones, and Jiazhen Yan

I.	Introduction	7.01
II.	Analysis	7.03
III.	Conclusion	7.56

8. Fit and Proper Requirements in EU Financial Regulation: Towards More Cross-Sectoral Harmonization

Danny Busch and Iris Palm-Steyerberg

I.	Introduction	8.01
II.	Scope and Definitions	8.02
III.	The Impact of the Financial Crisis	8.08
IV.	Credit Institutions and Investment Firms	8.11
V.	Cross-Sectoral Analysis	8.22
VI.	The Dutch Cross-Sectoral Approach	8.46
VII.	Recommendations	8.54
VIII.	Final Remark	8.84

9. Risk, Risk Management, and Internal Controls

Lodewijk van Setten

I.	The Concept of 'Risk'	9.01
II.	Risk Management is an Intrinsic Component of the Governance Design of a Firm	9.06
III.	Culture and Conduct Inform Risk Management	9.20
IV.	Risk Management is Part of the Internal Controls of a Firm	9.29
V.	The Risk Management and Internal Control Provisions of CRD IV	9.36
VI.	The Risk Management and Internal Control Provisions of MiFID II	9.45
VII.	Risk Management and Internal Controls in the UCITS Directive and AIFMD	9.51
VIII.	Specific Risk-Management Controls: Remuneration Policies	9.56
IX.	Concluding Remarks	9.62

10. Financial Market Infrastructures: The Essential Role of Risk Management

Paolo Saguato

I.	Introduction	10.01
II.	FMI's and the Business of Managing Risk	10.12
III.	The Public Regulation of Risk Management: EMIR and CSDR and their Implementing Regulations	10.20
IV.	The Challenges of Regulating Risk Management	10.45
V.	Conclusion	10.57

11. Compensation in Financial Institutions: Systemic Risk, Regulation, and Proportionality

Guido Ferrarini

I.	Introduction	11.01
II.	Grounds for Regulation	11.02
III.	International Principles and Standards	11.12
IV.	European Banking Regulation	11.21
V.	EU Regulation of Insurers, Asset Managers, and Investment Undertakings	11.48
VI.	Ways to Improve EU Regulation	11.58

12. Corporate Governance, Financial Information, and MAR
Carmine Di Noia and Matteo Gargantini
I.	Inside Information and Listed Banks: An Introduction	12.01
II.	A Snapshot of the MAR Regime for Inside Information	12.06
III.	Is Inside Information Relevant to Bank Governance?	12.16
IV.	Internal Information Flows	12.28
V.	Listed Banks and Their Subsidiaries and Associates	12.38
VI.	Listed Banks and Their Shareholders	12.49
VII.	Financial Reporting	12.61
VIII.	Conclusion	12.67
 III OWNERSHIP STRUCTURES
13. Engagement of Institutional Investors
Maria Cristina Ungureanu
I.	Financial Institutions and Investor Activism	13.01
II.	Active Ownership	13.13
III.	Stewardship Principles	13.23
IV.	Engagement and Voting	13.45
V.	Exercise of Voting Rights	13.65
VI.	Conclusions	13.70
 14. State-Owned Financial Institutions
Johannes Adolff, Katja Langenbacher, and Christina Skinner
I.	Introduction	14.01
II.	A Theoretical Case for State-Owned Institutions	14.06
III.	State-Owned Institutions: The Practical Challenges	14.37
IV.	Alternative Legal Paths to the Same Policy Goals?	14.73
 15. Cooperative Banking—A Dutch Experience
Martin van Olfen and Gerard van Solinge
I.	Introduction	15.01
II.	A Short History of Cooperative Banking	15.05
III.	A Short History of Cooperative Banking in the Netherlands: Rabobank	15.13

IV.	Main Characteristics of Dutch Cooperative Law	15.21
V.	Specific Features of Cooperatives: Assets or Risks?	15.31
VI.	Rabobank Corporate Governance and Finance Structure—The Recent Past	15.40
VII.	Rabobank Corporate Governance Structure—The Present	15.52
VIII.	Regulatory Framework	15.68
IX.	Summary	15.70

IV CONDUCT AND CULTURE

16. Corporate Culture in the Governance of Financial Institutions: An Interdisciplinary Approach

Shanshan Zhu and Guido Ferrarini

I.	Financial Institutions and Culture	16.01
II.	The Notion of Culture	16.17
III.	Governing Corporate Culture: (A) Leadership	16.27
IV.	Governing Corporate Culture: (B) Managerial Incentives	16.42
V.	Governing Corporate Culture: (C) Codes of Conduct	16.53
VI.	Cognitive Framing and Group Dynamics	16.61
VII.	Concluding Remarks	16.67

17. Public Supervision of Behaviour and Culture at Financial Institutions

Wijnand Nuijts

I.	Introduction	17.01
II.	Development of the Supervision of Behaviour and Culture	17.05
III.	What is the Supervision of Behaviour and Culture?	17.11

18. The Dutch Banker's Oath and the Dutch Banking Disciplinary Committee

Peter Laaper and Danny Busch

I.	Introduction	18.01
II.	The Dutch Banker's Oath	18.05
III.	The Dutch Banking Disciplinary Committee: Actors, Procedures, and Sanctions	18.10

IV.	Right to a Fair Trial	18.22
V.	Independence and Impartiality of the Tribunal	18.37
VI.	Anonymizing Files by Notifying Banks	18.46
VII.	Demarcation of the Bank's Acts, Professional Acts, and Private Acts	18.52
VIII.	Conflicting Interests of the Notifying Bank	18.60
IX.	Deviation from Internal Policies	18.65
X.	Transparency	18.70
XI.	Evaluation	18.77
19.	Managing Conduct Risk: From Rules to Culture Antonella Sciarrone Alibrandi and Claudio Frigeni
I.	Introduction	19.01
II.	Examples of Misconduct and Analysis of the Related Costs	19.09
III.	Definitional Issues Related to 'Conduct Risk'	19.18
IV.	Conduct Risk: Between the 'Conduct Perspective' and the 'Prudential Perspective'	19.31
V.	A New Approach: From Rules to Culture	19.38
20.	Conflicts of Interest: Comparing Compliance and Culture in the United States and the United Kingdom Geneviève Helleringer and Christina Skinner
I.	Introduction	20.01
II.	Protecting the Retail Investor: The Legal Framework	20.06
III.	Navigating the Conflicts of Interest Ahead	20.32
IV.	Building Cultural Infrastructure Around Legal Frameworks	20.68
V.	Conclusion	20.80
21.	The Venetian Banks' Collapse Paolo Giudici
I.	Introduction	21.01
II.	The Collapse of Banca Popolare di Vicenza	21.08
III.	Public Enforcement	21.41
IV.	Red Flags	21.52
V.	Would MiFID II have Prevented the Disaster?	21.71

22. The Spanish Banking Crisis as a Corporate Governance Problem
Maribel Sáez-Lacave and Maria Gutiérrez-Urriaga
I. Introduction	22.01
II. The Cajas de Ahorros	22.09
III. Recapitalization Efforts	22.17
IV. The Bankia Case: The Bank that Broke Spain	22.27
V. The Unhappy Ending	22.34
VI. Conclusions	22.41
23. Banco Espírito Santo: Anatomy of a Banking Scandal in Portugal
José Engrácia Antunes
I. From Cradle to Grave: 150 Years of Banking History	23.01
II. The BES's Autopsy: On the Causes of Death	23.13
III. Epitaph	23.25
24. Governance Problems in Dutch Financial Institutions from 2007 to 2017
Bas de Jong
I. Introduction	24.01
II. The Case of DSB Bank	24.05
III. Reflections on Governance and Supervision in the DSB Case	24.15
IV. Legislative and Policy Changes after DSB	24.27
V. EU Rules and the DSB Case	24.31
VI. Main Lessons from the Netherlands	24.35
Index	577