

CONTENTS

- I Introduction
CÉCILE VIDAL, EMILY CLARK, AND IBRAHIMA THIOUB

PART I: NEGOTIATING SLAVERY AND FREEDOM

- 35 The Role of Slavery in the Economic and Social History of Saint-Louis, Senegal
MARTIN A. KLEIN
- 55 Wives, Soldiers, and Slaves: The Atlantic World of Marie Baude, la femme Pinet
JESSICA MARIE JOHNSON
- 75 The Streets, the Barracks, and the Hospital: Public Space, Social Control, and Cross-Racial Interactions among Soldiers and Slaves in French New Orleans
CÉCILE VIDAL

PART II: ELUSIVE CITIZENSHIP

- 103 The Prison of Saint-Louis: French Expansion, Social Control, and the Early Development of the Penitentiary Institution in Senegal, circa 1834–1895
IBRA SENE
- 125 Citizenship and the Abolition of Slavery after 1848: Conflicts of National Allegiance among the French in New Orleans
MARIEKE POLFLIET

Contents

- 146 Asserting Citizenship and Refusing Stigma: *New Orleans
Equal-Rights Activists Interpret 1803 and 1848*
REBECCA J. SCOTT
- 168 French Citizenship and Colonial Rule in Saint-Louis, Senegal
LARISSA KOPYTOFF

PART III: MYTHIC PERSISTENCE

- 191 Transatlantic Currents of Orientalism: New Orleans Quadroons and Saint-Louis Signares
EMILY CLARK AND HILARY JONES
- 210 Reflections of Senegambia in New Orleans Jazz
BRUCE BOYD RAEBURN
- 233 Acknowledgments
- 237 Selected Bibliography
- 245 Contributors
- 247 Index