

Contents

Presentation and acknowledgements: genealogy of this book	ix
Abbreviations	xiii
1 Introduction	1
2 The preceding context: the early-medieval justice and major crimes	12
3 Sovereignty and the “merum imperium”	21
4 The symbology of the gallows: jurisdiction and terror	30
5 The death penalty in the royal “plenitudo potestatis”	50
6 The death penalty in the non-royal jurisdictions	82
7 The death penalty in the legislation of the municipal centres	94
8 The death penalty and ordinary justice	120
9 The death sentences	153
10 The application of the death penalty: the ceremony of execution	183
11 The application of the death penalty: the display of the body	215
12 The application of the death penalty: death by fire	233

viii	Contents
13	More fire: the inquisition and the death penalty	244
14	The death penalty applied to Jews and Muslims	278
15	The death penalty in the mind	301
16	Consolidating power and social cohesion through the death penalty	322
17	The death penalty in a tense Catalonia at the end of the Middle Ages	338
18	Conclusion	363
	Index of images	368
	Index	371