

Hamburger Hefte zur Internationalen Besteuerung

Heft 209 (2019)

Unit-linked life insurance contracts in a Franco-German context: Why one should have a closer look at legal and tax when moving abroad

Unité de compte, Fondgebundene Lebensversicherung and Fonds d'assurance spécialisé von

RA StB Sabine Leuschner, M.I.Tax

Comparative law analysis researched and established during executive master studies in International Wealth Management at ESCP Paris

TABLE OF CONTENTS

A.	Introduction.....	1
I.	European and regulatory situation concerning life insurance products and global mobility.....	1
II.	Different forms of unit-linked life insurance contracts in France, Germany, Luxembourg.....	2
B.	Analysis of cross-border effects on life insurance contracts in France, Germany and Luxembourg	3
I.	General principles on applicable contractual, regulatory and tax law for cross-border relationships	3
1.	European regulatory law opens the way to cross-border mobility	3
a.	EU Freedoms of Establishment, Services and of Capital.....	3
b.	EU Directives (Solvency II Directive).....	4
2.	Contractual and International Private Law	5
a.	ROME I Regulation: no change of the applicable law in case of cross-border transfers except subsequent choice of law.....	5
b.	No novation due to change of domicile.....	5
3.	International Tax Law and tax residence	6
a.	Tax residence according to domestic tax law	6
b.	Tax residence according to Double Tax Treaty on income tax.....	7
c.	Double taxation treaty France – Germany on inheritance or gift tax	8
d.	Tax declaration obligations in cross-border cases.....	8
II.	Legal Comparison of French and German unit-linked life insurance contracts for cross-border cases with potential solutions by Luxembourg FAS.....	9
1.	Life insurance character to be differentiated from capitalisation contracts....	9
a.	French unit-linked life insurance contracts (“ unité de compte ”).....	10
b.	German Fondsgebundene Lebensversicherung	10
c.	Comparison with Luxembourg life insurance contract.....	11
2.	Regulatory law	11
a.	Supervisory authorities.....	11
b.	Insurer holds underlying assets as civil owner	12
i.	France	12

ii.	Germany.....	12
iii.	Comparison with Luxembourg life insurance contract.....	12
c.	Eligible assets.....	12
i.	French Art. L. 131-1 CdA.....	13
ii.	German regulation on eligible assets (§§ 124 ff. VAG, AnIV)	14
iii.	Comparison with Luxembourg life insurance contract.....	14
d.	Protection of the underlying assets	15
i.	French unit-linked life insurance contracts.....	15
ii.	German unit-linked life insurance contracts.....	15
iii.	Comparison with Luxembourg life insurance	16
e.	Influence of the policyholder on the asset management	16
i.	France	16
ii.	Germany.....	16
iii.	Comparison with Luxembourg life insurance FAS.....	17
3.	Civil law aspects during the lifetime of the insured	17
a.	Contractual relationship of the life insurance contract between insurer and policyholder	17
i.	Most important obligations and rights of the policyholder.....	17
(1)	Obligation of payment of insurance premium	18
(2)	Rights.....	18
ii.	Obligations and rights of the insurer.....	21
b.	Contract to the benefit of a third party (beneficiary)	21
i.	France	21
ii.	Germany.....	22
4.	Civil law consequences at the time of the death of the insured.....	22
a.	Appointment of a beneficiary.....	23
i.	France	23
ii.	Germany.....	24
b.	No beneficiary exists	25
c.	Capitalisation contracts are part of the deceased's estate.....	26
d.	Information on death of the insured.....	26

5.	Conclusion of the legal comparison.....	27
III.	Taxation of unit-linked life insurance products.....	28
1.	Life insurance contracts to be differentiated from capitalisation contracts for tax effects.....	29
a.	France.....	29
b.	Germany.....	29
2.	Taxation during the lifetime of the insured.....	30
a.	Taxation depending on the tax residence.....	31
b.	Deductibility of insurance premiums only in Germany except for special contracts in France.....	31
c.	No taxation during savings period.....	32
i.	No income taxation.....	32
ii.	No wealth tax in Germany and limited wealth tax in France.....	32
iii.	No insurance tax or other local taxes.....	33
d.	Taxation on surrender.....	33
i.	France offers beneficial tax rate.....	33
(1)	Flat tax applicable to capital gain with regard to premiums paid after 27 Sept 2017.....	33
(2)	Taxation of capital gain with regard to insurance premiums paid until 27 Sept 2017.....	34
(3)	Neither tax deductibility nor set-off of capital loss.....	34
ii.	Germany partially exonerates taxable base or flat tax.....	34
(1)	Definition of life insurance contracts.....	34
(2)	50% exempted taxable base.....	34
(3)	Individual tax rate or German flat tax?.....	35
(4)	15% exoneration for Fondsgebundene Lebensversicherung	36
(5)	Limited set-off of capital loss.....	36
iii.	Tax effects in cross-border cases.....	37
(1)	Local tax rules are also applicable to foreign life insurance contracts.....	37
(2)	Non-resident policyholders.....	37
e.	Taxation at maturity.....	37

i.	France	37
ii.	Germany.....	38
f.	Resale of the life insurance contract	38
i.	France	38
ii.	Germany.....	38
g.	Does the beneficiary have to pay gift tax?	38
h.	Tax consequences if German or French tax resident chooses Luxembourg FAS	39
i.	Capital gains tax by payment in kind of the insurance premium?	39
ii.	Risk of exit tax upon change of tax residence with Luxembourg FAS?	39
i.	Preliminary conclusion for tax effects during the lifetime of the insured	40
3.	Payment of the insurance benefit after the death of the insured.....	41
a.	Taxation depending on the tax residence.....	41
b.	France.....	41
i.	Inheritance tax if no beneficiary has been appointed	41
ii.	General tax rules and inheritance tax if beneficiary has accepted.....	41
(1)	Withholding tax of 20% or 31.25%.....	41
(2)	Inheritance tax.....	42
iii.	Exonerated beneficiaries.....	42
iv.	Valuation for unité de compte contracts	42
c.	Germany.....	42
i.	Inheritance tax.....	42
(1)	Life insurance benefit acquired by inheritance, legacy, legal portion	43
(2)	Life insurance benefit acquired by contract to the benefit of a third party	43
ii.	Valuation for Fondsgebundene Lebensversicherung	43
d.	Cross-border effects and potential double taxation.....	43
e.	Preliminary conclusion for tax effects upon the death of the insured.....	44
IV.	Special contractual variations	44
1.	Co-subscription.....	45
a.	France.....	45

i. Civil law.....	45
ii. Tax effects.....	46
b. Germany.....	46
i. Civil law.....	46
ii. Tax effects.....	47
c. Co-subscription in cross-border cases.....	47
2. Cross-owned life insurance policies.....	48
a. France.....	48
b. Germany.....	48
c. Cross-owned life insurance in cross-border cases.....	48
3. Usufruct.....	49
a. France.....	49
b. Germany.....	50
c. Usufruct linked to an insurance policy in cross-border case.....	50
V. Case studies for international mobility.....	51
1. Case study.....	51
2. Case study.....	52
C. Conclusion.....	54
D. Annexes.....	58
I. Glossary.....	58
II. Literature.....	59
III. Legal Sources.....	62
IV. Administrative circulars.....	66