

Contents

List of illustrations	vii
List of contributors	viii
Acknowledgements	xii
Introduction: Populism and postcoloniality: Geopolitical experiences	1
ADRIÁN SCRIBANO
1 Populism, religion and the many faces of colonialism: Ongoing struggles for “the people”	16
JOANILDO BURITY
2 Parody, satire and the rise of populism under postcolonial criticism: A French and an Italian case	31
CÉCILE VERMOT AND MAICA GUGOLATI
3 Neoliberalism and populism in Argentina: Kirchnerism and Macrism as the two sides of the same coin	48
MAXIMILIANO E. KORSTANJE
4 Vox of whom? An assessment of Vox through discourse analysis and study of the profile of its social base	64
ALEJANDRO PIZZI AND VERÓNICA GISBERT-GRACIA
5 From Jorge Eliécer Gaitán to Alvaro Uribe: A brief exploration of populism in Colombia	81
BRETT TROYAN
6 The social question in the twenty-first century: A critique of the coloniality of social policies	94
ANGÉLICA DE SENA

vi Contents

7	Losing the battle to take back control? Clashing conceptions of democracy in the debate about Brexit	109
	THOMAS JEFFREY MILEY
8	Populism and neoliberalism in Chile	126
	FREDDY TIMMERMANN
9	The game of disillusion: Social movements and populism in Italy	142
	ANTIMO L. FARRO AND PAOLA REBUGHINI
10	Intercultural critical reflections on postcolonialist-decolonialist and populist theories from Latin America and Ecuador	157
	LUIS HERRERA-MONTERO AND LUCÍA HERRERA-MONTERO
11	Populism: The highest stage of neoliberalism of the twenty-first century?	174
	ADRIÁN SCRIBANO
	Index	193