

Contents

List of illustration	vi
Notes on contributors	viii
Introduction Natalia Knoblock	1
1 Discourses of conflict: Cross-linguistic corpus-assisted comparative discourse study of Russian and Ukrainian parliamentary debates of 2014 Tatyana Karpenko-Seccombe	11
2 Metaphor, identity and conflict in political discourse: A case study of President Poroshenko and President Putin's speeches Liudmila Arcimavičienė	45
3 The image of the Ukrainian crisis in the Polish-language media in Ukraine Ewa Szkudlarek-Śmiechowicz and Izabela Błaszczuk	65
4 Blended names in the discussions of the Ukrainian crisis Natalia Beliaeva and Natalia Knoblock	83
5 The antagonistic discourses of the Euromaidan: Kolorady , Sovki and Vatniki versus Jumpers , Maidowns and Panheads Olga Baysha	101
6 The Ukrainian nation – stepmother, younger sister or stillborn baby?: Evidence from Russian TV debates and related political sources (2013–15) Daniel Weiss	117
7 Who are 'they' for Ukrainians in Ukraine and in the diaspora? Othering in political discourse Natalia Beliaeva and Corinne A. Seals	137
8 Discursive practices in online media: Language ideologies in Ukraine in a time of crisis Alla Nedashkivska	157
9 Unrecognized holidays: Old and new 'state' traditions in the self-proclaimed republics in the east of Ukraine Yulia Abibok	177
10 Andriy Biletsky's Ukrainian order: Discourse, actions and prospects of democracy in Ukraine Halyna Mokrushyna	195
11 The art of the insult: (Re)creating Zaporizhian Cossacks' letter-writing on YouTube as collective creative insurgency Alla Tovares	213
12 Fighting fear with humour: The linguistic-pragmatic aspects Yaroslava Sazonova	233
13 Assimilative representations of Ukrainian refugees in the Russian and Ukrainian press: A 'burden' or a 'gain'? Ludmilla A'Beckett	253
Index	271