

Contents

Acknowledgements	VII
List of Illustrations	VIII
Notes on Contributors	X

Prologue: Reflections on Historiography and Biography and the Study of Africa's Past 1

Klaas van Walraven

PART 1

Methodological Insights

- 1 Human Symbols
The Biographical Pursuit and the Language of Symbolism in Contemporary South Africa 53
Lindie Koorts
- 2 'Your Surroundings Don't Make You; You Must Rise above all that'
The Home in Life Histories as Site of Resistance to Racial Violence, Cape Town, South Africa 70
Elena Moore
- 3 From Life Histories to Social History
Narrating Social Change through Multiple Biographies 91
Iva Peša

PART 2

Persons in Transitions

- 4 The Effervescence of Individual Life: Cornelius Badu, Born 1847 in Elmina, Gold Coast 117
Paul Glen Grant
- 5 The Leopard that Came to Laikom: Michael Timneng in Colonial Cameroon 148
Jacqueline de Vries

- 6 Underground Struggles: The Early Life of Jack Hodgson 170
Duncan Money

PART 3

Discursive Worlds

- 7 Binding Words: Student Biographical Narratives and Religious Conversion 197
Morgan Robinson
- 8 A Muslim Boy in Sunday School
Abdullah Abdurahman's Early Childhood and Education in Cape Town at the End of the Nineteenth Century 219
Eve Wong
- 9 Barthélémy Boganda between Charisma and Cosmology
Interpretive Perspectives on Biography in Equatorial African History 246
Klaas van Walraven
- 10 A Road not Taken? The Biography of Laurent Kabila (1939-2001) 275
Erik Kennes
- Index 299