

Contents

Foreword	vii
Rev. Canon Nontombi Naomi Tutu
Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: The Demands of Peace	1
Charles L. Chavis, Jr.
PART I: RACISM: A SYSTEMIC THING
1 Structural Violence through the Lenses of Conflict Resolution and Reconciliation: A Comparative Case Study of America-South Africa Racial Politics	13
Siyabulela Mandela
2 Deconstructing the Origin and Myth of Black Criminality: Asserting Black Agency over Black Lives and Black Communities	23
Wayne Rose
3 The Systemic Lynching of Trevyan Devon Rowe	41
Robert K. Hoggard
PART II: KNOWING THE PAST: NARRATIVE CHANGE AND THE HISTORICAL PERSPECTIVE
4 Segregation, White Supremacy, and the Dangers of Political Opportunism in the United States and South Africa: A Case Study of George Wallace and Hendrik Verwoerd	51
Matthew G. Washington

- 5 “I Leave You a Desire to Live Harmoniously”: Mary McLeod Bethune on Health and Wellness 69
Ida E. Jones
- 6 From Birmingham to Monrovia: Black Women and the Wait/Weight of Freedom, 1960–2005 87
Ajanet S. Rountree
- 7 “So Tried, So True”: The Legacy of Student-Led Protests at Historically Black Colleges and Universities 105
Simone R. Barrett
- 8 Reparations and Reparations NOW!: A Brief History of Compensatory Justice for the European Enslavement of Africans 121
Raymond A. Winbush

PART III: AFRICANA CULTURAL AND RELIGIOUS PERSPECTIVES ON PEACE

- 9 Sowing Solidarity through Womanist Erotic Pedagogy 141
Courtney Bryant
- 10 Race Conflicts, Rituals of Dissent, and Blackness in America 157
Oluwagbemiga Dasyuva
- 11 For Renewal: Faith in the Fight for Dignity and Human Rights 173
Sandra Tombe
- 12 Carcasses of Memory: Intersectionality, Institutionalized Terrorism, and the Play on Black Bodies in America 183
David Olali
- About the Editors and Contributors 203
- Index 209