

Contents

- 1 How and Why Is Colonialism a Contract? 1
Everisto Benyera
- 2 The Black and the Colonial Contract 29
Tendayi Sithole
- 3 Unravelling the Paradigm of War Embedded in the Colonial Contract of Palestine: Contemporary Zionist Colonialism as an Extension of Global Islamophobia 51
Ahmed Haroon Jazbhay
- 4 Contract Farming as Covert Perpetuation of Colonial Capitalist Hegemony? The Zimbabwe Context 71
Tom Tom and Knobby Tomy
- 5 Post-Independent African Leadership and the Paradox of Global Political Economy: The Zimbabwean Experience Under Mugabe 93
Washington Mazorodze
- 6 The Zimbabwe Post-2000 'Illegal' Sanctions: The Cost of Rejecting the Colonial 'Contract'? 109
Mzingaye Brilliant Xaba
- 7 Reclaiming Africa's Space and Development through Indigenous Knowledge Systems?: A Focus on Zimbabwe 129
Tom Tom
- 8 'State-Capture' of Indigenous Knowledge: Lived Experiences of Forest-Dependent Nigeria with Coloniality 151
Godwin Etta Odok

9	Claims and Counterclaims: Rewriting Gaza in the Twenty-First Century	173
	Charles Pfukwa
10	Continuity, Discontinuity and Change towards a Decolonial World Order: Africa's Challenges and Opportunities	185
	Torque Mude
11	Moulding African Personality through Reclaiming Physical and Intellectual Space	201
	Collence Takaingehamo Chisita, Alexander Madanha Rusero, and Joseph Ngoaketsi
12	Unshackling the Future: Emancipatory Struggles of the Global South	221
	Paschah Mungwini
13	Democratic Peace Theory Nexus Sustainable Peace among Great Lakes Region: Linking Theory to Realities of Rwanda-Uganda Relations	235
	Paul Mulindwa
14	Towards Autonomous Decolonial Futures: Using the Master's Tool to Destroy the Master's House	257
	Everisto Benyera
	Index	275
	About the Contributors	287