

Gender and Exemplarity in Medieval and Early Modern Spain

Edited by

María Morrás

Rebeca Sanmartín Bastida

Yonsoo Kim

BRILL

LEIDEN | BOSTON

Contents

Preface IX

Yonsoo Kim and Rebeca Sanmartín Bastida

Abbreviations X

Notes on Contributors XI

Introduction: Saints Textual: Embodying Female Exemplarity in Spanish Literature 1

María Morrás

PART I

Rewriting Models

1 Hagiography, Corporeality, and the Gaze: Sexual/Ascetic Tension in the Vida de Santa María Egipciaca 43

Andrew M. Beresford

2 Under Suspicion: Mary Magdalene in Late Medieval Castile, Virtuous and Illustrious? 75

María Morrás

3 Discernment of Spirits and Spiritual Authority: The Tractatus de vita spirituali and Its Afterlife 112

Rosa Vidal Doval

4 Women Prophets for a New World: Angela of Foligno, "Living Saints", and the Religious Reform Movement in Cardinal Cisneros's Castile 136

Pablo Acosta-García

5 Models of Female Spirituality in Sixteenth-century Spain: Women Accused of Lutheranism 163

Jimena Gamba Corradine

PART 2

Inscribing Models

- 6 "No hay quien vele a Alonso": Imitatio Mariae and the Problem of Conversion in Leonor López de Córdoba's Memorias 193
Ryan D. Giles
- 7 Speaking of Heaven in Conventual Women's Writing (Constanza de Castilla, Teresa de Cartagena, Isabel de Villena, and Teresa de Jesús) 212
Lesley K. Twomey
- 8 Torn to Pieces: Textual Destruction in Teresa de Jesús's Vida 252
Christopher van Ginhoven Rey
- Index 283