

CONTENTS

Overview I

SECTION I

POWER SECTOR REFORMS: AN OVERVIEW

1. The Growth of Power Sector in India 3
Leena Mary Eapen
2. An Overview of Electricity Act, 2003 36
Leena Mary Eapen
3. National Electricity Policy: An Action Plan 44
Leena Mary Eapen and Nitha Rajan
4. Electricity Policy and Eclecticity 51
Soma Banerjee and Urmi Goswami

SECTION II

IMPLEMENTATION OF REFORMS

5. Anomalies in New Electricity Act 57
GPRao
6. Issues of Marketing Power 63
Sudha Mahalingam
7. Evaluation and Effectiveness: The Electricity
Regulatory Experience in India 70
SLRao
8. Availability Based Tariff: An Economic
Instrument for Grid Discipline 111
Ashok Banerjee and Sayantan Banerjee

9.	Accelerated Power Development Reform Program - A Performance Appraisal	134
	Leena Mary Eapen and R Sthanumoorthy
10.	Rating of Power Utilities Performance	152
	Leena Mary Eapen
11.	Power: Reforms Gridlocked in Politics	161
	Raghuvir Srinivasan

SECTION III

REFORMS: WHAT REQUIRES TO MAKE THEM EFFECTIVE?

12.	Power Sector: More Sound Than Light	169
	Dhiraj Mathur
13.	The Real Challenge in Power Sector Restructuring: Instilling Public Control Through Transparency, Accountability and Public Participation (TAP)	181
	Shantanu Dixit, Subodh Wagle and Girish Sant
14.	"Without Distribution Reforms, the Power Sector Would Collapse"	198
	(An interview with PM Sayeed)
15.	Power Theft - Challenges Ahead	202
	Lathish P V
16.	Power Sector Reforms - Generating a Viable Model	214
	M G Devasahayam
•	Index	111