

CONTENTS

Introduction	xi-xxii
--------------	---------

PART ONE

Chapter I : Primary Accumulation	1
Chapter II : Social Milieu	23
Chapter III : The Founding Fathers	48
Chapter IV : Social Network & Institutionalization	92
Chapter V : The Bengal Social Science Association	129
Chapter VI : Positivism & India	173
Epilogue	201
Appendices	211
Select Bibliography	299

PART TWO

1. Address by the Hon'ble Justice Phear at the first meeting of the Bengal Social Science Association	1
2. 'On the Laws of Health considered with reference to the habits and peculiarities of the Natives of India' (Kanai Lal Dey)	26
3. 'Female Occupations in Bengal' (Greesh Chandar Ghosh)	52
4. 'Mohomedan Education in Bengal' (Moulvi Abdool Luteef)	64
5. 'The Festivals of the Hindus' (Kissory Chand Mittra)	88
6. 'The Calcutta Ragged School' (J. B. Knight)	109
7. Summary of replies received to the enquiries of the Association on the subject of Female Education	114

8.	'The Social Condition of the Muhammedans of Bengal, and the Remedies'	130
	( The Rev. J. Long )
9.	'Thoughts on the Present Social and Economic Condition of Bengal and its probable Future'	153
	( Chunder Nath Bose )
10.	'On the Condition of Bengal Ryot'	186
	( Peary Mohan Mukherjee )
11.	'On Indian Sanitation'	195
	( Miss Florence Nightingale )
12.	'The Improvement of Indian Women'	205
	( Keshab Chandra Sen )
13.	'Village Communities in India and Russia'	221
	( The Rev. J. Long )
14.	'Indian Cooly Emigration'	278
	( J. Geoghegan )
15.	'Prison Discipline and Industrial and Reformatory Schools'	308
	( Miss Mary Carpenter )
16.	'A Few Facts Concerning Village Life'	327
	( Isser Chunder Mitter )
17.	'The Origin and Development of Caste'	344
	( The Rev. K. M. Banerjee )
18.	'On Reformatory Schools and the Proper Classes of Juvenile Criminals to be subjected to Reformatory Treatment'	362
	( H. Beverley )
19.	'On the Statistics and Causes of Suicide in India'	391
	( Kenneth McLeod )
20.	Postscript	450