

Summary

- 9 Grandi Giardini Italiani, gems to protect and share
A tribute to an immeasurable heritage of culture and beauty
Judith Wade
- 14 From Piedmont to the Adriatic Sea
A flight through history, culture and nature
Mimma Pallavicini
- Signs of venerable, undimmed prestige 14
  - Four innovative gardens 20
  - From the Serenissima to the Savoy 26
  - The nineteenth century Italian-style 35
  - Italian gardens, English models 40
  - Topiary gems 46
  - Botanical treasures on the lakes 51
  - Lake Garda conversations 56
  - Gardens as art museums 62
  - An exemplary story 66
- Masterpieces from Friuli to Tuscany
- 68 The old, green heart of Italy in communication with the present
Mariachiara Pozzana
- The romantic landscaped giardino inglese 68
  - Topiary art, “the third nature” 74
  - The grandeur of parterres 81
  - The pleasure of botanical collections 89
  - A fairy tale in the garden 90
  - Expressions of a unique, exclusive love 93
  - Great history for great cinema 99
  - Eclectic gardens, interwoven styles 100

- 106 Pure emotion from Lazio to Sicily
More than five hundred years of history and beauty run through Italy from the Centre to the South
Patrizia Spinelli Napoletano
- The splendour of the past 106
Collecting, an Italian passion 121
Gardens with enchanted rooms 130
The transposition of a dream 136
- 144 Working for art and beauty
Grandi Giardini Italiani: more than ten years of history and commitment in the service of our landscape masterpieces
Lorena Lombroso
- 154 Grandi Giardini Italiani
The network of the most beautiful gardens open to the public
- 158 Index, photographic references and acknowledgements