

Contents

List of Tables	viii
List of Figures	viii
List of Photographs	viii
Preface and Acknowledgements	ix
Maps	xi
Abbreviations	xiii
1. The Sundarbans: Folk Deities, Monsters and Mortals An Introduction	1
2. Fearsome Forests, Rising Tides: A Historical Geography of the Sundarbans	9
3. The Sundarbans in punthi Literature	30
4. Tilman Henckell: An Advocate of Colonial Paternalism	55
5. Land Reclamation from the Eighteenth to the Twentieth Century	74
6. Development of the Port at Canning and Gosaba Co-operative	112
7. Tebhaga in Kakdwip	142
8. The Sundarbans in Modern Bengali Fiction	163
9. The Mangrove and the Man: A Conclusion	180

Glossary	184
Bibliography	188
Index	199

List of Tables

5.1:	Population Variation (as percentage) in the Sundarbans Police Stations between 1871 and 1951	75
5.2:	Total Immigration from different sources to the 24 Parganas and the Sundarbans, Male and Female (both in absolute figures and percentages): Census 1891	75
5.3:	Division of Sundarbans	79
5.4A:	Changes in Land Use, 1880-1950, for 3 Sundarbans Districts: Khulna and Bakarganj, Bangladesh, 24 Parganas (including Calcutta), India	95
5.4B:	Aggregate Change in Land Use from 1880-1950	96
5.5:	Typical Descent from the Estate Holder to Petty Tenure Holders	98
6.1:	Ships Visiting Matla Port	116

List of Figures

5.1:	Land Use (1880-1950)	94
5.2:	Population Growth	94

List of Photographs

Masked Men in boat.	2
Sundarban Trees.	10
Tiger Widows.	11
Major James Rennell's layout of the Sundarbans in 1781.	13
Sundarban Crocodile.	15
Jautar Deul.	22
Dakshin Ray.	34
Tilman Henckell's letter.	57
The bust of Daniel Mackinnon Hamilton (1860-1939).	119
A duplicate certificate.	128